

Cover Letter

*Author(s) full name
(Author affiliation such as institute name, address)
Correspondence Email ID
Date, Month and Year (as in 01st January 2017 format)*

Dear Editor-in-Chief, AJBAS,

Greetings..!

I/We (Based on the number of authors, please modify) wish to submit the (Please write the type of article such as Empirical paper / Review article / Short communication / Case study) titled 'Please write the title in full without any abbreviation' for consideration by AJBAS.

I/We confirm that this work is original and has not been published elsewhere nor is it currently under consideration for publication elsewhere. The total word count in the manuscript excluding tables and figures is (please specify the word count excluding references).

I/We assure you that the work is non-plagiarized to the best of our knowledge. If found plagiarized, I/We accept the Editor-in-Chief of AJBAS to reject the paper without any further considerations.

In this paper, I/we report on 'Please specify the uniqueness of the research, how it contributes to the research community, why it should be considered for publication in AJBAS and how the readers of AJBAS benefit from your article. You are suggested to write this section within 150-175 words, precise as well as informative rather than lengthy ones. Please avoid bringing all the data in this section while at the same time, you are free to compare your study results with that of the previous studies in words. Do not simply insert your abstract into your cover letter! Your valid points in this section should provide an overview of your research'.

I/We have read and approved the manuscript as submitted to AJBAS. To the best of my/our knowledge, no conflict of interest, financial or other, exists. I/We have included acknowledgements, conflicts of interest, and funding sources (if funding sources is not applicable, delete it).

I/We hereby enclosed (if you have attached any supporting files that need to be kept in appendices – only for online publication, please use this statement or otherwise delete it).

Please address all correspondence concerning this manuscript to (correspondence name and email ID).

Thank you for your consideration of this manuscript.
Sincerely,

Author(s) name(s)

CONFIDENTIAL